DOCKET NO. 07-12064-JLT

MOTION FOR RESPONDENT TO BE PERMITTED
TO WEAR "STREET CLOTHES" TO TRIAL

Now comes respondent, Todd Carta, and requests that this Court order the Marshals to permit him to wear "street clothes" to his upcoming bench trial. Respondent so requests because this will be a public trial and, in the interests of dignity, he wishes to be permitted to dress in pants and a shirt, rather than an orange canvas jumpsuit. Counsel will deliver the clothes to the Marshal's office in the mornings before the sessions begin, as is the practice in a criminal trial.

Respectfully submitted,
TODD CARTA
By his attorney,
